

Auto-Enrolment and National Employment Savings Trust

The statutory requirement for employers to auto-enrol employees into a pension scheme and pay at least a minimum contribution commences to take effect from 2012. This will require employers to review existing pension provision, HR systems and payroll procedures. This seminar will provide an update on the current rules and comment on some of the issues that may face employers.

We will be joined by a representative from the Personal Accounts Delivery Authority (PADA) at the Birmingham, Leeds and London seminars who will discuss the latest on the National Employment Savings Trust (formerly Personal Accounts Scheme), Automatic Enrolment requirements and Employer's responsibilities in the lead up to 2012. This may be one of the last opportunities to meet someone from PADA as this body is due to be disbanded in July 2010 to be replaced by the Trust Corporation that will eventually govern the NEST pension scheme.
